Nonviolent Crisis Intervention® An Introduction for Parents Sharing Strategies

Tuesday, March 11th 5:00-8:00pm

This Workshop offers skills for parents to positively affect their child's behavior through Nonviolent Crisis Intervention® strategies. It emphasizes the reinforcement of non-violent practices across diverse settings, and provides helpful insights into the fundamental behavior patterns of the individuals they support.

A Creative Way for Parents and Staff to Work Together

The Nonviolent Crisis Intervention® An Introduction for Parents includes workbooks for parents to add information about individuals in their care as they proceed through various concepts. After the Workshop, parents will have take-away Action Plans filled with strategies ready for immediate use.
