SS. Inquiry Project Rubric

	Not Yet Meeting Expectation	Meeting Expectations	Fully Meeting Expectations	Exceeding Expectations
Organization of Research -resources -work cited	-displays little organization in ordering ideas -includes few facts, details -cites sources in an incomplete way -uses less than 4 resources	-displays satisfactory organization in ordering ideas - includes some facts, details, or descriptions -uses 4 resources --cites sources in an adequate way	-displays capable organization in ordering ideas -includes many facts, details or descriptions -found information in more than 4 resources -cites sources in a complete way	-displays complete organization in ordering ideas -includes facts, details or descriptions beyond expectations -uses several different resources -cites sources in a thorough way
Writing -details/ information -C.O.P.S.	- offers loosely connected ideas, often very brief & hard to follow -information may not be accurate -little organization or logical sequence -repeated errors in C.O.P.S. -may be hard to read	-consists of connected ideas that include some details, may be inaccurate or copied, -introduction vague, may not have conclusion -some organization; sequence is logical -some errors in C.O.P.S -legible	-easy to follow with relevant ideas/information; written in own words -clear introduction; conclusion may be abrupt -well organized; sequencing & paragraphing -few errors in C.O.P.S -legible, neat	-clear, complete, concise information & ideas -flows smoothly; variety in sentences -introduction catches interest;conclusion sums up the information -well organized, clear sequencing & paragraphing -C.O.P.S. errors in complex structures -legible, neat, include special features
Time Management-	-did not use time effectively to focus on project -was easily distracted	-used time somewhat effectively to focus on project -sometimes distracted	-usually used time effectively to focus on the project -was not easily distracted	-used time effectively to focus on the project -student stayed on task